NEWS FROM THE SOUTH

BELEN -- Belen High School will administer the New Mexico High School Competency Exam on Wednesday, Jan. 27, Friday, Jan. 29 and Thursday, Feb. 4.

The exam is a requirement for graduation and is mandatory for all sophomores. Juniors and seniors who need to take the test again can do so on those dates.

The exam will be given from 7:30 until 10:30 a.m. all three days and buses will run for students who must be tested.

For students not taking the test, classes will begin at 10:30 a.m. and buses will run three hours later than usual. For example, if students usually catch the bus at 6:30, they will catch it at 9:30 on test days.
